 Press Release

The Council of Epicons approved in January the insertion of 8 new epicenters of consciousness. Those approved were submitted to a selection that had 50 candidates, including nominated names and those who nominated themselves for the position.

With the approvals, the Council of Epicons now has 48 members. The first meeting with the new formation took place on February 27. The insertion of the approved ones in the activities begins at the parapsychic dynamics and at the course Acoplamentarium, and, later, at courses of Extension in Projectiology and Conscientiology 2 (ECP2).

"The responsibility of being an epicon is great from the point of view of assistance, since the demand will be greater and the work will become more complex," evaluates the new epicon Rômulo Silva. The approval generated surprise, since Rômulo did not apply for the position. "I discovered when I had already been approved," he says, noting that he considers the indication the result of the work done during his volunteer work.

Rômulo is a volunteer at the International Institute of Conscientiology and Projectiology (IIPC) and was an ECP2 executive, a course he will teach. "I ended up being unemployed as a volunteer," he jokes.

lized that I was able to sustain a condition of greater responsibility," she says.

The selection process of the new epicenters lasted about two months. According to the Council member, Ernani Brito, the criteria for running for the position consider aspects such as the candidate's teaching experience, his performance in achievements and his constancy in volunteering. Also taken into the account are in-traconsciential aspects demonstrated by the nominees such as personal recycling, self-deintrusion, anti-conflictivity and groupality.

And what is more challenging in the new role of epicons approvals? "The role of multidimensional representation, since we will have more expressive responsibilities. New recycling will be necessary, things that you have allowed yourself and that may have to be rethought," says Rômulo. "There is pressure to get it right, as we end up being more example, people will watch more, they will pay more attention to my behavior," considers Dayane.

The next selection for new epicons will be opened in December of next year (2019) and will follow the conduct adopted by the Council today to approve a maximum of 10 new members each year. "Whoever competed and did not enter, is not excluded. It can be indicated or self-referenced in the next selection," says Ernani Brito.

Most recently, in 2015, Dayane planned personal evolution since he met Conscientiology in the article 'Aggravation of autoparapsychism from intraconsciential renewals', published on Conscientia journal. *"I divided the article in phases, considering all the activities developed in volunteering until then. Nerli Vieira Press Release Ectolab

On Saturday, February 9, Ectolab released the work Ectoplasm - a Contemporary Panorama of Research on Ectoplasm, which has among its objectives to insert even more research on ectoplasm in the academic environment. This is the result of more than 13 years of laboratory research, field research and several published articles on the subject, including master's thesis and doctoral thesis. "Our intention is to open the doors of universities through the publication of this book," explained Hernande Leite, book organizer and founder of the International Association for Research on Ectoplasm and Paracirurgia (ECTOLAB).

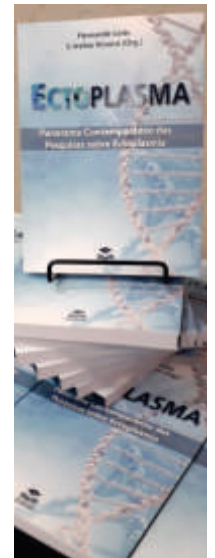

For this purpose all the work was aligned, from the choice of the publisher and the language to disseminate the la-laboratory research to other researchers, academics and interested parties. "The challenge was to find a unique language for everyone and stay focused," says Ivelise Vicenzi, the organizer of the work. Giuliano Ginani, one of the authors, said that the book is not a finished work and still has much work to contribute.

Hernande explained that the research began in 2006 from the Interassistential Dynamics of Paracirurgia (DIP), resulting in a work with 7 chapters and written in 6 hands, bringing the most recent research findings on this semiphysical substance and its therapeutic use. Neida Cardozo, author, clarified that since antiquity researchers have realized that in energy there was something more. However, it was not until the 19th century that more rigorous analyzes began, with with Metapsychic being the precursory science in this area, and now it is Conscientiology. "Our care was to give an interassistential approach in the use of ectoplasm." concluded Neida.

In Chapter VII, Eduardo Azevedo, also author, explains that the doubt of the external viewer loses the rationale when ectoplasm is experienced as a participatory researcher. Ismael Pinheiro Junior wrote a chapter on the Energy System.

HAPPENING

Starting in February, UNICIN started to promote the regular activity of UNICIN, always on the third Saturday of the month, from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. The objective is to promote an environment for enlightenment to the volunteers about the structure, functionality and services offered by UNICIN to CCCI, in the current context of the evolutionary group of Conscientiology. The meetings take place at room 203 at Polo Discernitum and interested parties must confirm participation by email protocol@unicin.org

CEAEC needs to update the fire system to comply with the new fire prevention and control rules, such as a license and permission to use gas, alarms, emergency exits and hydrants, among others. Fernando Barbaresco, CEAEC coordinator, reported that a specialized company has been hired to evaluate those items, for approval of the project by the Fire Department. So far, they have donated two properties in the Villa Conscientia Asa Sul of 440m<sup>2</sup> each, which are for sale, to apply the revenue from the sale of those terrains in the viability of the project.

The CEAEC team registered a special thanks to volunteer Lucimeres Mognon Biela, who desomated on February 14 after heart surgery. Lucimeres moved to Foz do Iguaçu on July 31, 1995 and, with affection, friendship and dedication, she performed brilliant assistance work in several conscientiocentric institutions, as well as in the Encyclopaedia of Conscientiology and in the Council of Parapedagogy of UNICIN. In the Open Orchids Project started in 2014, she left a legacy of more than 4000 orchids coloring the environment of reflections and research, visited by people from various parts of the world.

I VISITED CEAEC

Nerli Vieira

The team of the Integrative Quantum Health Center took the participants of the Immersion in Health course to know CEAEC on Saturday, February 16. The group, which had already hiked in Iguazu Falls to test hydro-energies in the morning, included the CEAEC bio-energetic spa in the course script.

After enjoying tasty organic food, without pesticides, at Sabor e Letras restaurant, they were able to walk around the Campus and see the bio-energies of the place. The intention was to show that one of the pillars of integral health is bioenergetics, says the acupuncturist Ricardo Yamasita. "The objective was to take a bath of nature for the purpose of holosomatic recomposition," says Silvia Jerônimo, a member of the team. Roseane dos Santos, one of the patients and student of the course, commented that she seeks the full health of body, mind and spirit, and already knew Conscientiology, but did not know CEAEC yet. The students loved the ride and wanted to stay longer.

CEAEC is a Campus of Conscientiology open to public visits, either individually or in groups. Schedule your visit by phoning (45) 21 02-1499, by e-mail ceaec@ceaec.org or campusceaec.org
